vs.)
)
United States of America,)	Case No. 1:07-cv-030
Defendant.)

On July 27, 2006, the plaintiff, Anthony James Moore, filed a complaint with the United States Court of Federal Claims. See Docket No. 1-3. The complaint dealt with issues related to Moore's conviction for Gross Sexual Imposition in state court. On December 27, 2006, the Court of Federal Claims filed an order sealing the entire record and changing the case caption to "John Doe v. United States." See Docket No. 1-22.

The Court notes that there is a strong presumption that judicial records are public records and that the record from the United States Court of Federal Claims should not be sealed. There is no factual or legal basis to justify that the record be sealed in this case. The Court ORDERS that the record from the United States Court of Federal Claims be unsealed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated this 23rd day of April, 2007.
